❖ ABOUT DAKSH

DAKSH is a techno-cultural fest which has been held every year since 2016 by the department of Computer Science and Engineering. Every year it is organized within the college premises and the students from all over the college actively participate in the fest, showcase their talents and skills in various fields, winning various awards and certificates.

This year, we were accompanied by Col. Rajeev Lohani as our honored chief guest, alongside our hon'ble Director Dr. Brijesh Singh, Head of Computer Science Department Dr. Vishnu Sharma and Vice-President, Extreme Club Dr. Inderpreet Kaur.

As always the fest started with the Inauguration Ceremony which comprised offering of prayers and lighting $diyas$ before the Goddess of Wisdom, $Saraswati$. It was then followed by various activities including dance performances and tributary act in the honor of our respected soldiers who lay down their lives for their motherland, followed by Jashn-E-Hunar event and fun galore activities and performances including those of our department faculties.
