GALGOTIAS UNIVERSITY NEWSLETTER

Editor's Take ...

Dear Readers,

Come 2015 and Galgotias fraternity has all the reasons to cheer! The highlight of this newsletter is the proud moment for the university, the DQ-ICT Award for Excellence in Academics & Placements conferred upon by Mr. N.R Narayan Murthy, Co-Founder Infosys. Well deserved for the endlessly toiling faculty and staff of the university. The award is a clear reflection of GU's placement cell's efforts that provided an optimum industry platform to the academic competence of the students here. Needless to say GU faculty constantly strives to put the students on the path of academic excellence.

It was a year of many firsts. Just to mention a few, new School of Education, Nirmaan: Galgotias Youth Parliament & Legal Aid Clinic. With the fresh batch of fresher's welcomed at the varsity, the institution raged ahead on the road to success with innumerable conferences and seminar. Across schools the university witnessed distinguished speakers lecturing the students on subjects ranging from human rights to engineering. Television industry visits always leave a lasting impression on the young minds, this time it was the iconic Rajat Sharma of the 'Aap ki Adalat' fame who charmed the students.

To me, the most interesting event was Nirmaan—Galgotias Youth Parliament. A brainchild of CEO Dhruv Galgotia, the event clearly provides a platform to many who wish to take to politics. The event clearly reflects the commitment of the Galgotias Management towards nation building.

Happy Reading !

Infosys Chief Narayan Murthy Awards GU

"We skill our students with a very high level of professional input from world's best resources. We are confident they will emerge to occupy top positions in their respective domains."

- Suneel Galgotia, Chancellor, Galgotias University

An honour for the University for years to cherish. This year was marked by the DQ-ICT Award for Excellence in Academics & Placements conferred upon Galgotias University by Mr. N.R Narayan Murthy, Co-Founder Infosys on 24 November 2014 . On behalf of the University the award was received by the Chancellor Mr. Suneel Galgotia and the CEO Mr. Dhruv Galgotia.

On the occasion, the Chancellor Mr. Suneel Galgotia said, "It is my belief that this honour recognizes our pursuit of world-class academic standards & pedagogies, foreign university partners, global-level faculty and complete integration with industry."

The award also honours Galgotias University's role in knowledge creation through courses in emerging technologies in partnership with industry leaders like IBM and with leading universities of the world such as Purdue University, University of Maryland, Goethe University etc.

That Galgotias University creates world class skilled manpower for the technology industry finds reflection in the fact that over 85% of Galgotias' CS students have been placed in Round-1 placements with over 120 top corporates at the recent campus interviews. Tech-giants Cognizant, Infosys, Wipro and Tech Mahindra recruited huge percentages of students, with many of them receiving multiple job offers. IBM partners CS programmes in the domains of Cloud Computing & Virtualization, Open Source Software & Open Standards, Business Analytics, Telecom Informatics & Mainframe Technology at Galgotias University. The global tech-major has set up labs and is deeply engaged in syllabus and pedagogy development as well as teaching processes.

Galgotias University ensures complete job-readiness by putting students through a rigorous industry-driven, 360 degree inputs programme, across the entire education span. This includes English and foreign language skills.

A Season of Fresher's Welcome

The new batch of fresher's was given a warm welcome at the Galgotias University. All the schools got together to celebrate the new students in the month of October. School wise orientation events were held, with the Vice Chancellor Dr. BV Babu and the Pro Vice Chancellor Dr. Renu Luthra sharing the vision of the university across campus. The freshers were introduced to their respective curriculum by their school deans and faculty members. Introductory session were held separately with the seniors & staff to help the students discern the functioning of their university. Elaborate Fresher's parties were held where seniors made sure that the new students were thoroughly entertained. Fresher's also participated with full enthusiasm showcasing their talents by performing stage shows in fashion, music and dance. The idea was to induct the freshers comfortably into the Galgotia family with open arms. All school Deans and faculty members took great care that the juniors and seniors enjoyed every bit of cultural events held across campus.

Legal Aid Clinic Inauguration by Justice Dipak Misra

It was an year of many firsts. The University got its first Legal Aid Clinic, which was inaugurated by none other than the Supreme Court Judge, Justice Dipak Misra.

Legal Aid Clinic has been set up at the University campus in collaboration with the UP State Legal Service Authority in order to give effect to the policy and directions of the National Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 and the National Legal Services Authority (Legal Aid Clinics) Scheme, 2010. The District Legal Service Authority Gautam Budh Nagar has also accorded permission to make use of the clinic for the needy & weaker sections of the society.

The occasion was also marked by an Annual Public Lecture delivered by Justice Misra himself. He spoke on the topic 'Human Rights in Constitutional Context'. He charmed the students by talking candidly about jurisprudence developed by the Supreme Court in enforcing Human Rights within the Constitutional Framework.

Chancellor Mr. Suneel Galgotia & CEO Mr. Dhruv Galgotia expressed their gratitude towards the distinguished speaker and appreciated the ease and warmth with which the honourable judge connected with the university students and faculty members.

Remembering Gandhi, Patel & Azad

Galgotias University got together this year to remember very fondly its national leaders in a special way. The varsity joined in to support the PM's launch of the Swachh Bharat Campaign in their own way. Under the guidance of the Vice Chancellor BV Babu, university's faculty and students picked up brooms & dustbins on 2nd of October, in their effort to clean the campus and take a pledge for future to support the campaign. Dean of Social Sciences Dr. Shalini Sharma spearheaded the cleanliness drive across campus. Mahatma Gandhi's Birth Anniversary was celebrated with a pledge of creating a clean environment.

Prior to this also on the 11th of November, the university celebrated the 125th birth anniversary of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad. The day was marked by essay writing competitions all over the campus by various schools.

Come 31st October and the campus was all set to mark the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. The day began with the VC Dr. Babu and ProVC Dr. Luthra inaugurating the National Unity Run. The deans, faculty, staff & students all took on their sports shoes making the run a big success. School of Medical Sciences and School of Humanities organized a Poster & Slogan Making Competition to mark the National Unity Day. While the School of Media & Communications Studies organized a Pictorial exhibition on the life history of Patel. Media School also screened a documentary film on the life of Patel. The whole campus came together running, drawing, painting and raising slogans—taking a pledge thereon to work in the interest of the nation.

Nirmaan: Galgotias Youth Parliament

One more step in the direction of creating future global leaders by GU. It is called Nirmaan, Galgotias Youth Parliament, founded by the CEO Mr. Dhruv Galgotia himself in the year 2012. This year the CEO gave the responsibility of running this unique youth platform to Mr. Abhishek Agarwal & Ms. Kriti Doneria under the dynamic guidance and leadership of Ms. Vinnie Khanna Mathur, Dean, Student Affairs. A two day event saw hundreds of delegates from across different states in the country. Nirmaan provides a platform for the young boys and girls to debate and exchange issues and challenges related to political and social issues.

The idea is to help the youth develop leadership and oratory skills along with a proper perspective regarding socio-political changes in the country and the world. Young delegates enthusiastically participated in this mock parliament exploring their strengths & weaknesses, also openly expressing their views on several issues. In the process, this Galgotias initiative is a unique step to motivate youth in the country to play an active role in politics and take it as a full time profession, if they so desire.

Mr. Syed Shameem Anwar, Dy. General Manager, IRPPL graced the occasion as the Chief Guest, motivating youth to show active participation in Indian politics. The esteemed presence of Prof. B V Babu, Vice Chancellor, Galgotias University and Mr. R Sundaresan, Director, GCET encouraged the delegates even more.

Nirmaan, has also been acknowledged and appreciated by the Indian government. Dr. Mahesh Sharma, Minister of State (Independent Charge) for Culture, Tourism and MoS for Ministry of Civil Aviation (India) said "Such academic simulation will surely provide a platform to the younger generation for brainstorming and developing creative ideas for resolution of contemporary challenges being faced by our society and will instill a sense of social responsibility."

Nirmaan has a long way to go and with every passing year the university is determined to take it to new heights.

An Evening with India TV's Rajat Sharma

For years many have watched the mock court proceedings of top film stars, politicians and activists on Television only under one brand name. It is anybody's guess - 'Aap ki Adalat', the signature show of Rajat Sharma, Editor-in-chief of India TV.

Galgotians also had the occasion of participating in the most popular TV news show and closely interacting with its host. Students from the School of Media & Communications Studies along with the students of School of Business enjoyed the mock court proceedings on Yasin Malik, separatist leader, Jammu and Kashmir Liberation Front.

On the sets of 'Aap ki Adalat', students got a live opportunity to ask tough questions to the separatist leader. The participation helped the students understand the relevance of incisive cross questioning as Rajat Sharma continuously probed the guest or the mock accused with his witty questions.

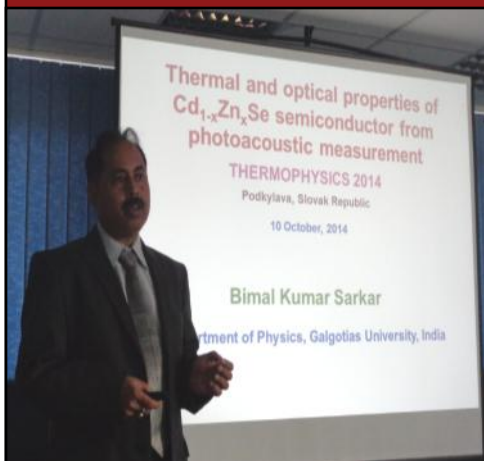

Following the show, TV news star Rajat Sharma interacted warmly with the students and the latter in turn got the taste of his style and demeanour as an anchor. The witnessing of the massive television set of Aap ki Adalat and the production process of the show was an eyeopener for the Galgotians.

Student & Faculty Accolades
